

Basic Play Therapy for Agency and School Settings

Presenter: Ashley Garrett, LPC, EDS, RPT-S, NCC

Date: November 10, 2015

Location: Garrett Counseling, Jacksonville Branch

Time: 8:00 AM - 12:00 PM

Program Content Description: Participants will learn basic play therapy techniques that can be used in both school and agency settings. These tools can be modified to work with different age groups in individual and group settings. This program will include hands-on experience in small groups allowing counselors to observe, then practice the technique. Counselors will receive feedback on implementation of skills learned.

Learning Objectives / Workshop Overview: Participants will learn basic history of play therapy and how to integrate with other counseling theory. Participants will learn how to document play sessions for reimbursement, court, and tracking. Participants will observe, practice, and receive feedback on techniques of play therapy. Participants will learn ways to integrate play therapy into group work therapy settings.
